

Contemporary Music for All Summer School

Orkney - July 2017

Saturday 22 July 19.45: Orkney Theatre

Acoustic Soundscapes

Sound artist Chris Watson, one of the world's leading recorders of wildlife and natural phenomena, probably most renowned for his work with David Attenborough.

Tuesday 25 July 20.00: Stromness Town Hall

Tributes to Max

Max Baillie (violin), Ruth Gibson (viola), Robin Michael (cello) and Rolf Hind (piano)

Peter Maxwell Davies	Piano sonata
Tributes to Max
Rolf Hind	The Dark Hug of Time
Alasdair Nicolson	Magnus III
Sally Beamish	Mavis
Gemma McGregor	Always by the shore
Stuart MacRae	Lento in Memoriam
Darren Bloom	Aureole
Interval
Peter Maxwell Davies	Dove, Star Folded (2001) for string trio
Beethoven	Op.9. No 1 String Trio in G major

Thursday 27 July 13.00: Orkney Theatre

Chamber Concert

Rolf Hind (piano) and Robin Michael (cello)

Rolf Hind	The Eagle Darkens the Sky
Martinu	Duo no.1 for violin and cello
Dutilleux	Trois strophes pour violoncelle seul
Alasdair Nicholson	Half Told Tales for piano trio

Thursday 27 July 22.00: St Magnus Cathedral

Goldberg Variations

Max Baillie (violin), Ruth Gibson (viola) and Robin Michael (cello)

J S Bach	Goldberg Variations
----------	---------------------

Friday 28 July 13.00: Orkney Theatre

Summer School Showcase

Programme to be devised during the course of the week

Saturday 29 July 19:30: St Magnus Cathedral

Orkney: Landscape & History <> Sound & Music

Programme to be devised during the course of the week

Tickets are available on the door £12 (£6 concession for young people up to 18 years)

More information about CoMA and the Summer School is available at www.coma.org